On the inside

NBC-10's Alicia Taylor, who's been out on short-term disability, fighting "emotional distress" since her war with Sharon Reed, is expected back soon ... Some crew members — not cast — of both the TV series "Hack" and the soon-to-begin "Jersey Girl" are quartered in the new Phoenix luxury apartment house (16th & Arch) ... While NBC-10's Kathy Orr is on maternity leave, Coleen Kennedy is filling in, and Byron Scott, a Channel 17 outcast, is getting part-time reporting work. (Rumored replacement for Scott at 17 is former Channel 6 reporter Rose Tibayan) ... Fairmount Park Commission member Michael DiBerardinis reportedly is interested in the top Fairmount Park job vacated by Bill Miffin. The former Rec Com-mish would be a great choice, but John Street doesn't like Mike.
