EMINEM'S CHRIS DIS

What does NSyncer Chris Kirkpatrick think about Eminem's "Without Me" lyrics that say, "Chris Kirkpatrick, you can get your ass kicked"? "In a club, when the song's played, I pretend I'm real upset," he says. In reality, "I was the first to be excited. To be in an Eminem song — he's a genius." The two met briefly a few years ago. "I heard he used my name since it rhymed with ass kicked."

J. Lo and Ben Get Serious

WITH RUMORS CIRCULATING ABOUT a potential wedding between Jennifer Lopez and Ben Affleck, one thing is clear: Their relationship is getting really serious. Currently cohabiting in Philadelphia while filming Jersey Girl, they've rented an entire floor in the city's chicest building, the Phoenix, for $17,000 a month, according to a source. "They almost never leave [the building] or return solo," says the insider. Affleck, 30, and Lopez, 32, "can't keep their [hands] off each other," says one worker in the building, who says they're constantly "holding hands, cuddling and hugging when in the lobby." Though he may not have bought a ring yet, a source says Affleck did drop $50,000 at Bernie Robbins Jewelers in the Trump Marina Hotel Casino in Atlantic City, New Jersey (on a brief day trip from the Philly set), to buy Lopez and her mother matching platinum Rolex watches with diamond dials. Still, don't expect wedding bells just yet — J. Lo and Cris Judd's divorce papers aren't final until January 26, and her spokesperson says no plans are in the works. But, says a very, very close friend of the singer-actress, "They are going to get married." When? "They won't get engaged or anything — they'll just get married."

MCGOWAN'S NEW GUY

First there was Sharon Stone and editor Phil Bronstein. Now Rose McGowan has her very own editor-boyfriend, Men's Health editor in chief David Zincenko, 32. An eyewitness at Los Angeles eatery Ago saw them on September 12 "kissing a lot over dinner." Two days later, they "held hands and kissed while shopping at Barneys New York" in L.A.
